

VILLA ARMY TO ATTACK MONTEREY

17,000 Men Reported to be Advancing Against Nuevo Leon Capital.

EL PASO, Tex., Aug. 31.—Reports from Villa sources state that an attack on Monterrey by virtually the entire Villa army is imminent.

Seventeen thousand men, practically all the Villa forces, are said to be moving against the Nuevo Leon capital. Villa himself has left Torreon for the front, it is reported, and will take personal charge of operations.

Carranza officials in El Paso declare that Monterrey is still held by the Carranzistas and has not yet been attacked.

It is not known how far the Villista columns are from the threatened city. All Villa's artillery has been sent to the Monterrey field of operations.

Former Villa officers, disgusted with their leader's methods, have said they have revealed to local Carranza officials a plan alleged to have been conceived by Gen. Felipe Angeles to secure several thousand troops from Villa, lead them into Sonora ostensibly to fight the Carranzistas and then disown Villa. It is claimed that Angeles and Gov. Maytoreno intend to join forces and repudiate Villa as the leader of the conventional army.

Copies of letters which are said to have passed between Angeles and Maytoreno have been forwarded to the Carranza agency in Washington.

Food Is Scarce In Mexico

The picture shows a scene in front of the Rastro (slaughter house) in Mexico City, where hundreds of starving Mexicans come each day for the blood thrown away after the cattle are killed. Note the earthenware jars and other containers which they bring to carry away the blood. Reports from Mexico City say that the situation is the most critical yet experienced in the Mexican capital. The warring chieftains have stripped the city of everything. All food is confiscated for the use of the soldiers.
